The Food and Beverage Carton Alliance (FBCA) welcomes Lamipak, strengthening the global voice for circular packaging

The Food and Beverage Carton Alliance (FBCA) is pleased to announce that Lamipak has officially joined the Alliance as a full member, following unanimous approval at the 2025 FBCA General Assembly.

Established in 2007, Lamipak provides aseptic packaging solutions from its operations in China and Indonesia, working with customers in more than 80 countries to provide safe and sustainable packaging. As a full member, Lamipak will actively contribute to FBCA's mission to promote food and beverage cartons as safe, circular, and low-carbon packaging solutions.

"We are delighted to welcome Lamipak to our growing global platform," said Sebastian Bartels, Director General of FBCA. "Their expertise and ambition will strengthen our collective voice and accelerate progress toward a more sustainable packaging future. Lamipak's membership reflects the growing momentum behind fibre-based packaging and our shared commitment to food resilience and innovation across the value chain".

"Joining the Food and Beverage Carton Alliance reflects Lamipak's unwavering commitment to shaping the future of sustainable packaging through global collaboration and bold innovation," said Anton Hui, Country Managing Director of Lamipak Indonesia. "Being a member of a global organization such as FBCA means that Lamipak is contributing our energy, sharing our expertise, and staying focused on long-term goals that help advance practical solutions that make food systems safer, smarter, and more sustainable for future generations.”

This milestone underscores FBCA’s continued expansion and its role as a global platform uniting food and beverage carton manufacturers and paperboard suppliers to drive systemic change in packaging sustainability. Lamipak joins Billerud, Elopak, SIG Group, Stora Enso, and Tetra Pak as members of FBCA.

About FBCA

The Food and Beverage Carton Alliance (FBCA) is a global platform uniting food and beverage carton manufacturers and their paperboard suppliers. Formed from the merger of ACE and EXTR:ACT, FBCA advocates for food and beverage cartons as safe, circular, and sustainable packaging solutions that contribute to resilient food systems and low-carbon, circular economies.
